

Dear Coach,

I sincerely you've enjoyed knowing me 't as much as I have enjoyed knowing you. —

It's really been an experience to say the least!

Seriously, you're a fine teacher, and in my opinion an even finer gentleman — one whom I shall never forget.

Don't forget me,

Jillie Phillips

P.S. If you ever need a reminder of the "real" me — look on page 232.

Dear Mr. Atkins,

It has been an pleasure being one of your students. You are a great teacher. May the showers of hope and rainstorm of faith pour over you.

Here I am in
my truest form.
a "bum" doing something dumb! If anyone can do dumb stuff, I can.
After all, I think I'm really the dumbest see the dumbest person in the whole world.
At least, right now I feel that way! But then we must remember, people like dumb some people anyway.

Comment: People

Mr. Atkins, 50
Thanks for making Biology more than some words in a book. I really have learned a lot this year
and loved it.
